FLYING FRINGES on elaborate costumes and fast moving moccasined feet of two talented young Fancy Dancers provided a colorful spectacle for Elk Point Canada Day stage show.

Up Front

Glorious parade salutes Canada's 135th birthday

Well over 50 floats, antique vehicles and saddle horses followed a bevy of decorated bicycles through the crowd-lined streets of Elk Point on Canada Day, with a number of imaginative and creative entries following this year's Canada Day theme, "135 Years of Canadian People."

Ollie Fedorus in a feathered native headdress piloted a small tractor bearing the sign, "Journey Through The Century," and towing a unique string of cars, each bearing the dates of an era and carrying costumed youngsters, to win first prize in the theme category. Fedorus spent the afternoon hauling load after load of children around the arena grounds in his tiny train after the parade.

Second prize in the theme category went to Elk Point Christian Community Church, with their picturesque entry drawn by an antique tractor, while third went to the Pioneer Circle with a quartet of fiddle players and passengers portraying some of the ethnic groups who make up Canada's population.

The Pioneer Circle also placed first in the Adult Clubs and Organizations, with the Elks and OORP sec-

Canada Day celebrated under sunny skies

Elk Point barely even missed the drought - banned fireworks display this Canada Day weekend, with a packed schedule of activities keeping the community hopping from Saturday morning through Monday afternoon.

Attendance was lower than usual for the Much Music Video Dance Saturday night, but good crowds took in Saturday's Charlene G. Baker Memorial Horse Show, Sunday's Gospel Concert, the Canada Day Beerfest and all of the July 1 activities. (See details of the Horse Show on Page 2 and the Gospel Concert on Page 9.)

The Chamber of Commerce had their usual good crowd and a long lineup for their pancake breakfast, which was enlivened by self-styled street performer Eugene Buck and by strong winds which sent a few breakfasts flying.

The Lions Club Parade was the best in recent years, and good crowds lined the route to watch the colorful procession.

Promptly at 1 p.m., a scarlet coated RCMP officer solemnly raised the Canadian flag as Michelle Friesen sang "O Canada". Mayor Lyle Frisby welcomed the crowd and thanked the Canada Day Committee for their efforts. MLA Ray Danyluk was pleased to be on hand and also complimented the organizers "for a great job, not just today, but every year."

Michelle Friesen looked back to the 1960s with "Downtown," "My Boyfriend's Back," "It's My Party" and "Look at Me, I'm Sandra Dee," while Geno Buck followed his bluesy "Environment Song" with "Sweet Home Alberta."

Liz Poitras introduced grandchildren Corbin, Alisha and Torian Poitras, Jazzy, Jessie and Jordan John and their demonstration of Aboriginal dances. The Ladies Fancy and Jingle Dances and the Men's Grass Dance are colorful and historic parts of the Aboriginal culture. The group also performed Métis dances to the music of grandpa Homer Poitras and his band, Rollie Poitras, and Bill Parenteau. Corbin Poitras is also a talented drummer for the band, which continued on with some most enjoyable music.

More music with an entirely different flavor came from Vision 27, a teen band consisting of Addison Bartholomew, Josh Boyko and Garrett Poulin, to wind up the stage show.

The Christian Community Church with their mouthwatering pies, the Skating Club with their selection of barbecued delights and the Royal Purple with their yard-wide Canada Day cake were kept busy all afternoon, and a beer garden was ready to quench hot-day thirsts. A variety of displays filled the arena lobby, while out on the arena lawn, Popcorn the Clown created close to 400 balloon animals for a long line of youngsters, and the Parent Nursery offered everything from a fish pond and face painting to a ball toss and disc dropping contest to keep the younger set entertained all afternoon.

The new Special Interest category, which included horses and riders, antique vehicles and individual entrants, was won by the Fort George and Buckingham House Historic Site's miniature fort, with second place going to Jacqueline Olson on horseback in antique Mounted Police garb, and third to the Kuhn's Kollectibles entry, which included Gil Garner's antique truck.

Business and industry were rolled into the new Business category, with Elk Point Co-op's colorful float placing first, E-Can Oilfield Services' entry second and Home Town Grocers placing third.

The decorated bicycles made an excellent show, with Katelynn Roberts first, Leigha Bishop second and A. J. Braconnier third. All of the cyclists received Canada Day water bottles, tattoos and flags.

LEOS LIVE AND IN PERSON provided some music as they toured the town on the Lions Club float.

Heinsburg hosts successful first annual Cowboy Poetry Gathering

The hard working Heinsburg Community Club hosted their First Annual Cowboy Poetry Gathering this past weekend, bringing together some of the top cowboy poets in Alberta and BC along with a full slate of musical talent to provide a star-studded lineup of talent.

Babe Sharkey and the Heinsburg Country Cousins opened the show Friday evening, following words of welcome by Marge Scott. "It's a big project for our group. A lot of people worked very hard to get this ready."

Iven Bryant of Wetaskiwin, president of the Alberta Cowboy Poets Association, said he was "glad Marge and Roy and the volunteers got together to put this on. I hope it will be a success this year and in years to come."

Bryant, along with fellow poets Frank Gleeson of Williams Lake, BC, Ezra Eberhardt of Wetaskiwin, Keith Pugh of St. Paul and Vicki Brooker of Elk Point, shared the stage with St. Lina singers Adele and Ralph Johnson, Boscome's Clarence and Blanche Smith, and area musicians Jerry Ahern, Russ Kowtun, Roy Butz, Walter Anderson and Lane Scott, with Roy Scott accompanying a few numbers on the spoons and his mule bones. Connie Axell MC'd the evening.

Saturday morning it was the "Little Cowpokes" turn, with fiddle tunes by Caleb and Eli Eidsvik and cowboy poetry by Liard Hanson, Brian and Ethan Lenz and Morgan Buxton. The latter three are grandsons of Westlock cowboy poets Rose and Garth Bibby, and also sang a hilarious ditty about "Cowboys Who Don't Do Anything." Mereline Griffith and Vicki Brooker read the winning entries in the Young Poets competition, "Summer Storm" by Levi Bristow and "Cowboy Rain" by Amber Krider. Neil Leckie from Fort George and Buckingham House was on hand with fur trade games to wind up the morning. (Continued on Page 5)

ROY SCOTT celebrated his 76th birthday on stage by playing his legendary mule bones.

CRIME STOPPERS

On June 27, 2002 between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. a blue 2000 Ford Superduty pickup was struck by an unknown vehicle while parked at the Co-op parking lot. The owner of the truck went into the store and when she returned the vehicle had been damaged.

It is an offense under the Motor Vehicle Administration Act for the driver or owner to fail to notify the owner of a vehicle damaged in a collision and to fail to make an accident report.

Elk Point RCMP are requesting public assistance in locating the suspect. If you know who is responsible for this hit and run or know the suspect vehicle, please contact the Elk Point RCMP at (780) 724-3964 or your nearest police agency.

CANADIAN SPIRIT GALORE - Eugene Buck entertained those waiting in line for pancakes, and then was back again to entertain at the stage show with his inimitable musical style.

POPCORN AND ROSIE were all set to put out fires along the parade route with their highjinks. Popcorn later entertained almost 400 children with his balloon artistry at the arena.

What a wonderful community! Thanks for all your help!

Canada Day celebrations are over for another year but let me talk about our wonderful community. The support that was shown by everyone who came out to help us celebrate was just wonderful. To the Chamber of Commerce, I know you do the Pancake Breakfast every year, and I know it is the familiar faces who work behind the grills, and serving tables, and I know the community expects to see you there every year. but, please accept our thank yous. You were wonderful. You bring Canada Day celebration comfort as we could come to eat the pancakes and sausages know you will be there... you are home to us. Thank you, Chamber, and special thanks to Sherry Pelech who isn't part of the Chamber membership but recruited her whole family again this year to help get the breakfast organized and everyone fed.

To all the people who entered our parade this year: you all were wonderful! Such a big parade for Elk Point. Now, I know, it takes time to decorate floats. But you all did such a good job. The theme, "135 Years of Canadian People", was so well represented this year. By entering our parade you helped us all to feel a part of Canada's people. To all the businesses, oil companies, clubs and organizations, individuals, and children with decorated bicycles, please take a bow, you were just wonderful. Thank you for making our parade a good parade to watch. Thank you, Lions Club and Community Lions for organizing and judging the parade. To the Lions Club and the Firemen, thank you for working three events - the Much Music Video Dance, the Beerfest and the Beer Gardens. And, thank you for cleaning the Arena after all the events. Speaking of cleaning up, a big thank you goes out to Ron Fraess and the Town crew. You moved in the bleachers for the outdoor Canada Day stage, you set up the barricades on the parade route, brought tables for the pancake breakfast area and put out garbage pails. Then we had wind, so your cleanup job was a little harder. Please accept our thank you. You were wonderful.

To the Christian Community Church for their pie tent — oh, my, those pies were great as always. Thank you. To the Skating Club for your barbecue meals, thank you. To the ladies of the Royal Purple, thank you for making and serving the Canada Day celebrations birthday cake. All of this food was great. Thank you, everyone.

To Popcorn the clown - thank you. I know you are trying to retire, but the kids in Elk Point have come to love you very much. You said you made about 375 balloon animals and if some balloons hadn't broken, you could have made more. But, oh my, your fingers are still recovering. Anyway - a big thank you, Popcorn, from Elk Point. Speaking of children, now, weren't the Parent Nursery Moms great! Thank you for holding your Penny Carnival on Canada Day. What a great idea. Thank you, and thank you again. And Ollie Fedorus, you were great when you gave all the kids rides in your 'century train'. Thank you for volunteering to do this. To all the performers at our outdoor stage show - Michelle Friesen, Homer Poitras with family and friends, Eugene Buck, and the band, Vision 27, a big thank you. Thank you for sharing your talents. Thank you Girl Guides and the RCMP for raising our Canadian flag. And.. a big thank you to Rob Walker for the best sound system ever. That wind was a challenge, but you came through. You were awesome. To all the people who entered the "Crafts, Displays and Such" inside the Arena, you were appreciated. Thank you for sharing your talents. To the people who ran and took part in the horse show and the Gospel Concert - thank you. To Marshall Kachmar, thank you for looking after the fireworks, which wasn't to be this year because of the extreme dry conditions.

Yes, we have a wonderful community. Thank you, everyone, for all you did in helping us celebrate Canada Day 2002.

JACQUELINE OLSON in old-time Mountie garb and Ruth Purdy paraded in bright sunshine.

FORMER ELK POINT RESIDENT Sandy Brunner came back to perform at the Gospel Concert, and brought along her husband, former Canada Day chairman Joe Brunner. Good to see you both!

CANDY-TOSSING COUNCIL - Mayor Lyle Frisby and councillors Dwayne Vogel and Dennis Jasinsky were in great candy-tossing form as they traveled the Canada Day parade route.

community NEWS*Forty years of rodeos celebrated at Stoney Lake

With two original Stampede board members riding in the grand entry, and two original and continuous sponsors on the list of trophy donors, Stoney Lake celebrated 40 years of top notch rodeos this weekend. Walter Piotrowski, 84, has never missed a grand entry, and was right up there in front with current president Kevin Drobot, both proudly carrying the Canadian flags. Mike Drobot, carrying a provincial flag further back in the lineup, also has been with the association since the beginning, and Zarowny Motors and Elk Point Insurance and Realty have been proud sponsors each year.

Perfect weather saw the stands well filled with spectators as Brent Foster made the winning Bareback ride Saturday evening on Flip Flop for a 73 score. Cote Trach of Dewberry made Sunday's top ride on Hay Wire for 67 points.

Saturday's evening performance also saw the best rides in both

Saddle Bronc and Bull Riding. Max Radford marked a winning 85 on Debbie, the same Saddle Bronc horse to combine with Wes Yule on Sunday for an 84. In the Bull Riding, Riley Everts chalked up 81 points on Hager on Saturday, while Troy Dubie, with 70 points on Rough Trade, was Sunday's only qualified rider.

The event's only qualifying rides came Sunday for Lloyd MacNeil of Clive, who marked a 63 on Mustang Cycle to win the Novice Horse Riding, and Jeremy Heraid of Stoney Lake who placed second on C2.

Rocky Ross tied up his calf in 9.9 seconds in Sunday's slack to win the Calf Roping, and Chuck Melin downed his steer in 5.0 seconds Sunday afternoon to edge out Gerald Hays, with 5.2 in the slack. In Team Roping, Boyd Mahon and Roger McKinney did the job in 5.9 seconds.

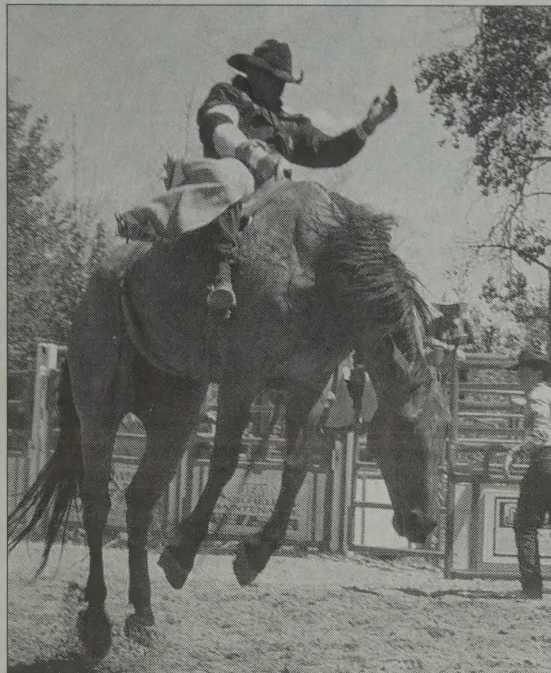

Rylee McKenzie of St. Paul won the Junior Barrel Racing with a speedy 15.954, only a fraction faster than Ladies Barrels winner Lauren Coma of Mayerthorpe, who turned in a 15.724.

Sunday afternoon provided plenty of action for a new generation of cowboys and cowgirls as well, with Dakota Walker winning the Mutton Busting and Matthew Tymofichuk and Sarah Labonte handing in the first balloons in the Calf Scramble.

TJ's trained Texas Longhorn, owned by Tim and Jackie Edwards of Vanscoy, SK, delighted the crowd with his leap through a ring of fire, but the real highlight of Sunday's performance was Stoney Lake's spectacular Steer and Stoneboat Race - a hilarious tangle of men, cows, saddles and ropes which ended up with Cory and Jason Marcoux and David Hebert taking home the 2002 title.

WALTER PIOTROWSKI (right), a 40 year veteran of Stoney Lake Stampedes, joins president Kevin Drobot to lead the 2002 grand entry.

Heinsburg hosts first annual Cowboy Poetry Gathering

Lane Scott provided wagon tours of Heinsburg for a number of eager visitors.

Saturday afternoon featured Rose and Garth Bibby, Mereline Griffith and Gordon Alstead, who also served as MC, along with more poems by Bryant, Gleeson and Eberhardt. The musical lineup included the Heinsburg Country Cousins, the Johnsons, Frank Gleeson and Bruce Rollins, Jerry Ahern and friends, Jocelyn Erasmus, the Smiths, Allan Hickox and Russ Kowtun.

Kelly Fordice, a Lakeland College instructor, demonstrated the fine art of horse-shoeing, setting a new quartet of shoes on Noah, a registered quarter horse, while offering a running commentary on each step of hoof trimming, cold and hot shoeing.

ALBERTA COWBOY POETS' ASSOCIATION President Iven Bryant.

Saturday evening was MC'd by Roy Butz, and started off with "The Ballad of the Frozen Logger," recited by Charlie Thompson. Another special guest was Grandpa Jones, (or a reasonable facsimile), direct from Nashville via Boscome. Poetry by Frank Gleeson, Rose and Garth Bibby, Mereline Griffith, Vicki Brooker, Gordon Alstead, Iven Bryant and Ezra Eberhardt and songs by Connie Axell, Russ Kowtun and Allen Hickox, Jocelyn Erasmus and Walter Anderson filled the program. Lane Scott led everyone in singing Happy Birthday to his dad, Roy, who celebrated the occasion by joining the musicians to play his bones and spoons, inviting up his spoon-playing protégé Becky Dunham and handing over the bones to Lane, who showed he has inherited this unique talent.

Open mike jam sessions accompanied the socials both Friday and Saturday nights.

Sunday morning, with everyone well fed at the pancake breakfast, Kathy Foster led a meaningful Cowboy Church service, with music provided by Babe Sharkey, Grace Meger and Jocelyn Erasmus. Iven Bryant offered a poem, "The Old Ragged Cross," Mereline Griffith a poem entitled "Denim and Lace" and Ezra Eberhardt a "Cowboy's Christmas Prayer" which was every bit as appropriate on a hot summer day. Mrs. Foster read a poem by Bill Bonner, "Thanks to Jesus," and added her own message on "Choices." The audience joined in to sing "Let the Sun Shine In" and "He's Got the Whole World In His Hands" to end both the service and a great weekend of the best in country-style entertainment.

what's NEWS at the LIBRARY?

Library's Summer Reading Program is now in full swing

By Carlen Mutch

Summer Reading Program

The Summer Reading Program is now in full swing, with last week being the first week of the program. On Tuesday I had the younger kids, and with 16, we had a full house. We started out reading a story about sea animals, then we moved to the back room to play with the puppets. The kids had a lot of fun acting out a zoo with all their animals. They also had fun making lots of noise.

The older kids on Thursday also had fun with the puppets. This time we acted our fairy tales. Since our puppet selection is fairly limited, tales like "The Three Little Bunnies" instead of the "Three Little Pigs" worked out pretty well. We also made do with recycled paper as props, making grass, houses and even caves. I think that I was the noisiest this time. We then made a boat out of paper plates. When I was trying to figure out that craft, I had to enlist the help of Sandy to figure out the instructions. I warned the kids that it was kind of hard, but they proceeded to put me to shame. Once again my lack of any craft skills comes back to haunt me. Next week the theme is pirates.

We have finally taken down our gardening display and put up a new one. This time we have books all about vacationing in Canada. We have books about parks, trails, accommodations and even bringing your pet on vacation. If you're planning on discovering Canada this year, which I'm sure many people are, be sure to stop by.

One last thing to mention. This summer, the library has two summer students: myself and Sandy Bullock. Since we are both funded by grants, there are sometimes stipulations that go along with them. Sandy is funded by Young Canada Works, a government program. One requirement of her grant is to help provide services to the community. Because of that, the library is extending an invitation to the community for anyone interested in computer training. This is for people who want to become a little more computer literate, even if you've never used a computer before. Once we have interested parties, we will set a date. If there is enough interest, we could even run a couple of sessions. This would be free of charge and open to anyone in the community. If you are interested, you can stop by the library or call us at 724-3737.

Gospel Concert offers ministry in music

ST. MICHAEL'S CATHOLIC CHURCH was represented at the gospel concert by (left to right) Mary Nelson, Janet Antonio, Dennis Heffernan, Laura Antonio, John Braga, Kristen Antonio, Pat Oster, Michelle Friesen, Margaret Bayduza, Elizabeth Gillespie, Bernice Zapesocki, (front, left to right) Jodi Antonio, Michael and Emily Gillespie, Marge Heffernan and Gabe Bayduza.

Performers and spectators of various faiths came together on Sunday night, June 30 for a well-attended celebration of faith and ministry in music. Harvey Nadeau of the Calvary Family Fellowship organized this year's concert, and welcomed representatives of local churches and the community. Calvary pastor Jerry Richards offered the opening prayer.

Richards and Nadeau were joined by Sarah Osinchuk, Irene Lindquist and Sue Bykowsky for three numbers, "Jesus, Name of the Savior," "His Name is Wonderful" and "As We Gather."

Gabe Bayduza was joined by four generations of her family - aunt Marge Heffernan, cousin Dennis Heffernan, sisters Bernice Zapesocki, Mary Nelson and Pat Oster, daughter Margaret Bayduza and great-nephew John Braga to sing "Only a Shadow" and "Lord of the Dance," the latter featuring solos by Mrs. Oster and Mrs. Zapesocki.

Sarah Osinchuk sang "Let the Truth be Heard," based on John 14:6, "He is Risen" and "Days of Elijah."

Special guest artist was former Elk Point resident Sandy Brunner, singing "Thank You" and "Consider the Lilies." She was followed by local teen Michelle Friesen with "This World."

The Calvary Family Fellowship music team was back, this time with the addition of Sherry Smith, for five more numbers, followed by a duet, "Through it All" by Nadeau and Richards, with Miss Osinchuk on guitar.

The Bayduza family group was joined by Janet, Laura, Kristen and Jodi Antonio, Michelle Friesen, and Elizabeth, Michael and Emily Gillespie, all from St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church, for "Jesus My Lord, My God, My All" and "Be Not Afraid."

In a departure from the usual Gospel Concert format, Pastor Richards gave a brief sermon, asking "What does the future hold for Canada?" and exhorting the audience to develop a Christian environment of humility, prayer, devotion and repentance. "We must humble ourselves, pray, and seek the will of God, and we will see God work for us."

Wilfred and Phyllis Collins came to the concert from another concert in Dewberry and while Wilfred acknowledged that "there are a lot of bad things out there," he added, "but there are a lot of beautiful things, too... we must remember to hang onto the beautiful things." Phyllis added that it had been "a day full of music.. other places are doing this too and the day has been just blessed." She sang "Lift Up Holy Hands" and was joined by Wilfred for "Someday He'll Whisper My Name," "Do you Really Love Me?", "Cabin in the Hills," "Abba Father" and such old favorites as "Will the Circle Be Unbroken," "Love Lifted Me" and "Marching Over Jordan."

Pastor Richards offered the closing prayer, asking for a sense of revival, praise and worship for the community in the coming year.

THANK YOU

SHAREK, Steve

Our family wishes to express special thanks to everyone who visited our home, brought food, flowers, cards, phone calls, charitable donations & shared in our time of sorrow.

Special thanks to Dr. Ramful, nurses, Palliative Care and the Home Care Staff for their care and support during our trying time.

Thank you to Pastor Owen, Faylene for the solo, Liz White for the music and to the Royal Purple Ladies for preparing and serving a delicious lunch.

Our thanks to Yewchin's Funeral Chapel for their help and support, to the Elementary School & Seniors Centre for the use of their facilities.

Special thank you to the pallbearers and to Todd Youngmans for the touching Eulogy for his Uncle Steve.

Thanks again everyone!

OBITUARY

PALINKA, Lillian

On July 1, 2002, Mrs. Lillian Palinka, age 69 years, of Elk Point, passed away with extraordinary spirit and valor after battling cancer.

She will be dearly missed by her husband, Mike of 47 years; 2 daughters, Susanne (Don) Gaughan of Sherwood Park; & Sonia (Tom) Atkin of Edmonton; 4 grandchildren, Connor, Tara, Asha and Brooke; 4 brothers & 2 sisters, Mike (Nancy) Maksymec of Derwent, Roy (Beverly) Maksymec of Leduc, Steve Maksymec & John (Ida) Maksymec, all of Elk Point, Helen (Fred) Borutski of Edmonton, & Mary (Nick) Olinyk of Two Hills. Lillian was predeceased by her parents, Fred & Annie Maksymec; brother, Bill; and granddaughter, Taylor Atkin.

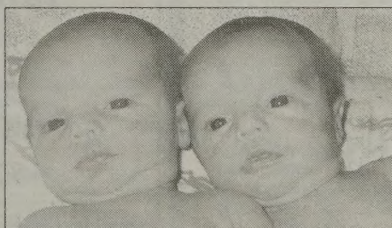

A Prayer Service was held Wednesday, July 3 at 7:30 p.m. at Yewchin's Funeral Chapel, St. Paul. A Divine Liturgy & Funeral Service was held Thursday, July 4 at 10:00 a.m. at Yewchin's Funeral Chapel, St. Paul. Reverend Fr. R. Dobrianski was the celebrant with interment in the Holy Eucharist Ukrainian Catholic Cemetery, Elk Point. Flowers gratefully declined. If desired, donations may be made to the St. Paul & Area Palliative Care Association or Kidney Foundation c/o Box 425, St. Paul, AB T0A 3A0.

Sox say sad goodbye to their veterans

Someday, just maybe the Sox will win a provincial championship, but not this year. This year was a building year, the Sox were still learning a lot of the games skills. Catching, throwing, hitting and running. Baseball is not an easy game to play. It take's a lot of skill and a lot of practice before you can play the game right. The Sox won two out of ten, in the round robin, not enough to qualify for the final in A, only 8 teams out of 22 will make it. There is small chance that they may make the A2 provincial final, if we were to host, but the top 8 teams in A2 will be given the opportunity to host first. This time of the year it is always hard to say goodbye to the veterans. Only two veterans will be leaving the team, but both of them will be really missed. Brian Poitras, the # 1 catcher for the last two seasons, and who by the way hit a two run homer over the fence at Bassett Field, better than 330 ft. Brian also hit a homer in Vegreville, in the first round robin, but the Veg fence is only 260 ft, nothing compared to the dinger he hit on this past Saturday at Bassett Field, something he and his family will remember forever. Melvin "Stopes" Easthope, the other veteran to leave the team, got his wish to pitch a complete game his last game ever with the Sox. Melvin will be missed at the plate, the clean up batter for most of the season, almost hit a homer on Saturday if he had pulled the ball over a little, his hit was about the same distance as Brian's but further towards center field. It could have been back-to-back jacks.

Playing in the Metro League didn't hurt the team, and the plan is to enter into the same league next year, and the boys will hopefully develop over the next few years into a powerhouse. The guys came a long way this year with noticeable improvement, and most will be returning next season, Grayson Bilak had a RBI double and a RBI single in the last game. Nicky Myshaniuk has a good glove at 1st. base, which allowed the coaching staff to move Kurt Kozicky to the outfield at the end of the season. Kevin Moneta was moved to lead off batter, when his batting average of .667 was the highest on the team. Lead off batter for most of the season Joel Leckie seems to get on base all the time. Mark Ference has a great arm, and starting hitting the ball the last two weekends of the year. Mark Letestu will likely try to fill Brian's spot behind the plate next season. Myles Quinney has improved every game on the mound and at the plate. Isaac Peters was the team's best pitcher, doing one complete 7 inning game every weekend of the provincial round robins, and winning the game against High Prairie when the boys were in Athabasca. Rookie, Lee Letestu showed great attitude and is going to be a super player in the next few years. Greg Kozicky didn't have a lot of hits but the one he had, went for miles. Steven Kozina and Travis Lindquist did not play a lot this year, but showed improvement in the field and at the plate, Travis getting a good hit in a game in Veg.
